Motivation

- Did you face difficulty in solving term-final questions?
- Ever felt that there are no archives to keep our books and solutions for our department?
- Lack of an appropriate platform to share your notes to your classmates or your juniors?
- After solving term-final exams, did you ever feel like your notes will be forgotten in the void of space and time, whereas those notes could have been a treasure to someone who will come to your position after 5 or 6 years?
- Exercises inside your books make your head spin?

We want to build just what you need!

We present...

CSFlow

The all-in-one platform to

- share solutions of previous term-final exams
- share solutions of exercises of books
- ask questions and get answers from any student of the department
- search the archive with an easy interface
